

Gyro International

Club Vice President:

The Club Vice President supports the President in all matters. He prepares himself to take over when the President is not available.

Duties and Responsibilities:

1. Become familiar with the Club's Policies & Procedures or By-Laws.
Also be familiar with protocol required at Club functions.
2. Be prepared to act on behalf of the President; this will involve constant communication with the President and the committee chairmen.
3. Be directly involved with the committees and support them in every possible way.
4. Be involved in the training and guidance of the other Officers and the Directors.
5. Assist the President in guiding the destiny of the Club; by practicing good communications and by performing your duties with humour and enthusiasm.